

Mr. Celestine Ksoo

Assistant Professor LL.M. (UGC-NET)

Teaching Experiences: 9 Years

Area of Interest: Criminal Law, Constitutional Law, Jurisprudence, Customary Laws.

Mr. Celestine Ksoo joined the Shillong Law College as faculty member in the year 2013. He completed his 2-year LL.M. from the Indian Law Institute (ILI), New Delhi, specializing in Criminal Law and Corporate Law. He attended the Orientation Programme (HRDC-NEHU), Refresher Course (JLU) and FDP (NLU Bhopal & JLU). Presently, he is pursuing his Ph.D. in the North-Eastern Hill University (Law Dept). He has the experience of teaching Property Law, Criminal Law, Constitutional Law, Jurisprudence, Legal Method, Environmental Law, ADR, Offences Against Child & Juvenile Offences. He attended webinars/seminars, workshops, conferences and training programmes at international (ICRC, FDP, on Global Environment), national (GU, NALSA, NEP 2020-NEHU) and regional (Mediation-TSLSA) levels. He has delivered lectures in St. Edmund's College (MSW), North Eastern Police Academy, and has judged in national moot court competitions (NEHU). He has organized many legal awareness programmes and has been a resource person in PLVs trainings, workshop on RTI and presentation on NALSA Schemes and other topics through All India Radio, Doodarshan Kendra (Kanoon ki baat) and Legal Aid – Law on Radio (FM). He coordinates with the Meghalaya State Legal Services Authority in providing free legal aid/services to the people. He is trained as Mediator by the MCPC, Supreme Court of India, and has also been nominated by the District Legal Services Authority, EKHD, as conciliator at the National Lok Adalats. He is faculty in-charge of the Legal Care and Support Centre, Shillong Law College, and a member of many important bodies/committees of the college.

Email: celestineksoo3@gmail.com