

ZEENAT PARVIN

Assistant Professor

B.A.L.L.B (HONS)

Experiences: 7 months

AREAS OF INTEREST - CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, ADMINISTRATIVE LAW, LAW OF TORTS, LABOUR LAWS, BANKING LAWS, MUSLIM LAW, HINDU LAW.

Mrs. Zeenat Parvin has completed her basic education from Jorhat, Assam, thereafter she went on to pursue her B.A.L.L.B (hons) from dept of law, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong and graduated from the same with distinction in Banking Laws in the year 2014. She then practised in the Guahati High Court for a brief period of 7 months. Thereafter she completed her L.L.M with specialization in Constitution and Administrative Law from the Dibrugarh University in the year 2021, in the same year she cleared NTA UGC NET in law. She then worked as an Asst professor under the Ajmal Group of Institutions for a period of 7 months. Currently she is employed at the Shillong Law College in the capacity of an Asst Professor.

She has attended a number of seminars and presented papers for the same. She has also attended webinars. She has also published papers relating to areas of law in certain journals. She completed a certificate course on Introduction to Environmental law and policy by University of North Carolina. Recently she has also undergone the UGC Sponsored Malviya Mission Training Program as part of the Faculty development program. She has conducted a one-day seminar entitled " Importance of research in legal education ".

Currently she is the Nodal Officer for Tobacco Free Educational Institution Programme under the Shillong Law College Unit. Apart from that she is also a member of the Shillong Law College IQAC subcommittee on Research.

Email: zeenat.parvin@gmail.com